

TUNING CHART

First start by playing your “tuning” note. Once the tuning note is in tune, check each note (that is possible on your instrument) and place an x through the box where it registers on the grid shown below. As you practice, continue to check the notes that are more than 5 cents out of tune.